

GOD'S PERFECT TIME AND PLAN

Introduction: The life of Moses is an amazing story of God's perfect timing in working out His _____. There is much to be learned from the _____ of this great man of God and hero of the faith.

- I. God's _____ Timing (Exodus 2:1-10)
 - A. God's blessing is upon the institution of _____: the joining of one man to one woman.
 - B. Parents just never know what God may have in store for any of their _____.
 - C. Amram and Jochebed did not allow the _____ of their day to keep them from having the blessing of children (Heb. 11:23).
 - D. It takes great _____ to let go of that which is precious to us.
 - E. There are no coincidences in the life of a _____.
 - F. God was moving in the life of one baby to make preparations for the birth of a whole _____ and the fulfillment of many prophecies.
- II. Man's _____ Timing (Exodus 2:11-14)
 - A. It is critical for us to know who we _____ are.
 - B. We all make decision about who we will _____ with in life (Heb. 11:24-26).
 - C. There is a right way to bring about _____ rather than acting in passion (Jas. 1:19-20).
 - D. We must wait on God's perfect timing to fulfill the _____ He has for us—it may be God's will, but just not yet time to do it (Acts 7:23-25).
- III. God's _____ Timing (Exodus 2:15-25)
 - A. It was God's time for Moses to _____ Egypt for a while (Heb. 11:27).
 - B. God took Moses from the luxurious lifestyle of Egypt into His rough _____ of the desert.
 - C. God took Moses through the courses of _____ and _____.
 - D. Often it is the tough times of life which become the greatest times of preparation for God's _____ plans for our lives.
 - E. All the while, God was hearing the _____ of His people in bondage.

Conclusion: "His own education was very incomplete; it would take at least forty years to drain him of his self-will and self-reliance, and make him a vessel fit for the Master's use" (F.B. Meyer).