QUOTES USED IN SUNDAY, JULY 4 MESSAGE: "LIBERTY"

Our 1st president, George Washington, took the oath of office with his hand on the Bible. His first official act as President - he kissed the Bible, then held a 2 hr. worship session in Congress. They determined to open sessions of Congress in prayer. Chaplains would lead in prayer and would be paid with tax dollars. Putting "In God We Trust" on our coins was adopted by Congress in 1956! In 1776, 11 of the 13 colonies required that one had to be a Christian to be eligible to run for political office. In 1777, Congress voted to spend $300,000 to purchase Bibles for distribution in the nation. The GETTYSBURG ADDRESS states "...this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom..." 94% OF THE WRITINGS OF THE FOUNDING FATHERS OF THE U.S. CONTAINED QUOTATIONS FROM THE HOLY SCRIPTURES. THE STATE CONSTITUTIONS OF ALL 50 STATES MENTION GOD. The famous "Liberty Bell" has part of Leviticus 25:10 inscribed on it: "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof."

Proverbs 14:34 is inscribed above the L.A. city hall door: "RIGHTEOUSNESS EXALTETH A NATION: BUT SIN IS A REPROACH TO ANY PEOPLE." An image of Moses carrying the tablets of God's Law faces the Speaker of the House of Reps. The entering President takes his oath of office with his right hand on the Holy Bible, and concludes his vow "So help me God." The Supreme Court begins each session with the phrase 'God save the United States and this honorable court.'

First Vice President and Second President, John Adams wrote in 1798: "Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other."

President Thomas Jefferson: "I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that His justice cannot sleep forever." - 1781

Our sixth President, John Quincy Adams said: "No book in the world deserves to be so unceasingly studied, and so profoundly meditated upon as the Bible."

The Christian writings and pronouncements of President Abraham Lincoln would fill an entire book.

Theodore Roosevelt, America's 26th President, wrote: "In this actual world, a churchless community, a community where men have abandoned and scoffed at, or ignored their religious needs, is a community on the rapid down-grade." - 1917

Woodrow Wilson, our 28th President and Governor of New Jersey, said this: "America was born a Christian nation. America was born to exemplify that devotion to the elements of righteousness which are derived from the revelations of the Holy Scripture." - 1911

Calvin Coolidge, our 30th President, said this about our founding fathers: "They were intent upon establishing a Christian commonwealth in accordance with the principle of self-government. They were an inspired body of men. It has been said that God sifted the nations that He might send choice grain into the wilderness... Who can fail to see it in the hand of destiny? Who can doubt that it has been guided by a Divine Providence." - 1923

Franklin Roosevelt prayed this prayer on a national radio hookup on D-Day, June 6, 1944, as our troops stormed the beaches of Normandy: "Almighty God... with Thy blessing we shall prevail over the unholy forces of our enemy. Help us to conquer the apostles of greed and racial arrogance. Lead us to the saving of our country. Thy will be done, Almighty God. Amen."

Harry Truman, our 33rd President, not known to be a committed believer, understood the spiritual heritage of this nation: "If men and nations would but live by the precepts of the ancient prophets and the teachings of the Sermon on the Mount, problems which now seem so difficult would soon disappear"

Gerald Ford, our 38th President, quoted a 1955 speech by Dwight D. Eisenhower on December 5, 1974: "Without God there could be no American form of government, nor an American way of life. Recognition of the Supreme Being is the first - the most basic - expression of Americanism. Thus the founding fathers of America saw it, and thus with God's help, it will continue to be."

President Ronald Reagan: "If we ever forget that we are 'One nation, under God', then we will be one nation gone under."

George W. Bush was asked to name the philosopher that had the greatest influence on his life, this was his answer: "Christ, because he changed my heart"
