Gospel Tracts = “Paper Missionaries”

1. A good gospel tract faithfully proclaims the biblical gospel.
2. A gospel tract can go places that you can't go.
3. A gospel tract can clearly present the gospel in a cogent way.
4. A gospel tract doesn't take much effort to pass out.
5. A gospel tract is often politely received by people (or, politely rejected).
6. A gospel tract can find its way into people's homes when we can't.
7. A gospel tract doesn't argue; it merely states the Truth & calls the reader to repent & believe.
8. A gospel tract can be handed to anyone, at any place, at any time, with a smile.
9. A gospel tract can allow the reader to refer to it again for Bible references and follow up.
10. A gospel tract can be used by God to convert the lost and encourage the redeemed.
11. A gospel tract sticks to the point and never gets sidetracked with silly arguments.
12. A gospel tract might be read by a person too arrogant to talk but too curious to let the literature pass him by.
13. A gospel tract may be providentially used by God at the right time to sow gospel seeds in someone's soul.
14. A gospel tract is a loving way to present the gospel to sinners in need of salvation from God's judgment.
15. A gospel tract is an easy way to proclaim the gospel with a smile of brotherly love toward your neighbor.

“When preaching and private talk are not available, you need to have a tract ready... Get good striking tracts, or none at all. But a touching gospel tract may be the seed of eternal life. Therefore, do not go out without your tracts.”

“The very first service which my youthful heart rendered to Christ was the placing of tracts in envelopes, and then sealing them up, that I might send them... I used to write texts on little scraps of paper, and drop them anywhere, that some poor creatures might pick them up, and receive them as messages of mercy to their souls.” - Charles Spurgeon
