THE “LITTLE PREACHER”

Pastor Dennis Leatherman

No doubt, one of our greatest tools in the spread of the gospel is the simple Gospel Tract! This handy “Little Preacher” is able to do what many of us often fail or are unable to do. Let me give some examples of the advantages the Gospel Tract has:

1. The Gospel Tract never stumbles over words or forgets important Scriptures.
2. The Gospel Tract can be given even during extremely brief encounters (when making a purchase, passing someone in the street, etc.).
3. The Gospel Tract never gets sidetracked or caught up in an argument, it just gives the message of salvation, plainly and clearly.
4. The Gospel Tract is never intimidated or fearful.
5. The Gospel Tract never is tempted to compromise the message of Christ.
6. The Gospel Tract can wait on some one's door until they get home.
7. The Gospel Tract can be left in public places and wait until some one's curiosity causes them to pick it up and read it.
8. The Gospel Tract never gets tired and gives up.
9. The Gospel Tract never gets discouraged or disheartened.
10. The Gospel Tract is very inexpensive and travels very easily (letters, purse, shirt pocket).
11. The Gospel Tract will often speak over and over when read and reread, whereas our verbal witness is usually only heard one time.
12. The Gospel Tract can and will travel to communities we could never personally reach.
13. The Gospel Tract is very inexpensive to purchase and distribute.

We could go on and on as to the benefits and uses of the “Little Preacher”. Only eternity will reveal the number of souls saved and lives impacted by this “Little Preacher”!

THINGS OF THE WORLD

(1 John 2:15)*

We must be wary of the world's “things,” because we are “in the world” not “of the world” (John 17:11-16). The command in our text is that we are not to love the world or its things, not that we should remain blissfully ignorant of them. We are to be “wise as serpents, and harmless as doves” (Matthew 10:16).

There are big things of the world like nations and kingdoms (Matthew 4:8; Luke 12:30) as well as cares and riches (Mark 4:19) which can sap our focus and drain our loyalties. And there are “rudiments” and “elements” (Colossians 2:20; Galatians 4:3) that can twist our thinking and “spoil” us (Colossians 2:8).

We are warned that friendship with the worldly lifestyle and that which espouses the “things” of the world, makes us an “enemy of God” (James 4:4). That is because such people embrace the “spirit of the world” and not “the spirit which is of God” (1 Corinthians 2:12). Those people speak about the things of the world, and the world listens to them (1 John 4:5).

God's people may be “base” and “weak”- even “foolish” in the eyes of the world (1 Corinthians 1:27-28). Since the great Creator God has chosen us out of the world (John 15:19), it should not surprise us that the world “hates” those who belong to the Lord Jesus (John 17:14). Hence, the ungodly passions that drive the ungodly behavior of the world, “the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world” (1 John 2:16).

Those passions and the people who embrace them will “pass away.” But “he that doeth the will of God abideth forever” (1 John 2:17).
