MISSIONS EMPHASIS SUNDAY

December 7, 2008
with Brother Ken Fielder
(First Bible International)

Dear Church Family,

Thank you all so much for the nice care packages that you all sent to me. It meant alot to me to know that you all were thinking about me. Again...Thank you all so much for what you did for me!!!!!! EV-ERYTHING was greatly needed...especially the coffee:)) Today is Tuesday 10/28/08...it was cold today and I loved it!!!!!! It is about time that it started to get cold down here. I would say that it was in the 50s today and windy. That may not sound cold to you but it is cold for down here.

Classes have been going good. Mid-terms are over!!!! The Lord helped me on all of my mid-terms and I know it was because of the prayers that you all send up for me. The semester is half way over. It has gone by fast. I can't wait to get home and see you all and to have the cold back. Mom sent me pictures today of the snow that they got...I even miss the snow:))

I am going to go for now so I can get some of the production homework done that is due tomorrow. Thanks again for everything!!!!!!!!!!!!

Katherine

Hey Pastor

Tell everyone thanks for the packages. I was going to buy most of the stuff later that day but now I don't have to. Thanks for the sweets and thanks a mill for the jerky! I don't know who mentioned that I love jerky but I thank them. Have a good 1. Be home in about 47 days.

WITNESSING IDEAS WHILE SHOPPING...

There are endless ideas for tract uses while shopping. Here are some of the most popular ideas.

- Hand a tract to the cashier
- Leave tracts on the shelves in the stores
- Place tracts in the dressing rooms
- Place a tract in the pockets of the clothes
- Hand tracts to the passengers on the elevators
- Leave a tract next to the hand-rail on the escalator
- Place a tract under the windshield wiper on the cars in the parking lot

NATIONS THAT FORGET GOD

"The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God." (Psalm 9:17)

The subject of hell is widely ignored today, even by evangelical teachers and pastors. Heaven is commonly mentioned at funerals, of course, since almost everyone attending a funeral wants to think that the deceased has gone there (assuming there turns out to be such a place). Hell is rarely acknowledged as even a possibility, on the other hand, even for mobsters or other criminals.

Nevertheless, hell is real and it is going to be more fully populated than heaven. The Lord Jesus said (and He should know!), "Broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: . . . narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it" (Matthew 7:13-14).

But just who are the "wicked" that will be turned into hell? According to the Bible, "There is none righteous, no, not one" (Romans 3:10), and "the whole world lieth in wickedness" (1 John 5:19). By the principle of Hebrew poetic parallelism, our text would indicate that "the wicked" are those who "forget God," where the connotations of "forget" is "become oblivious to."

Can whole nations become oblivious to the true God of creation—and do business and legislate and conduct all their affairs just as though God no longer existed? If so, those nations (or at least those citizens of those nations who practice such wickedness) are in mortal danger. "Thou putttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross" (Psalm 119:119).

But "Christ died for the ungodly" (Romans 5:6) and "blessed are all they that put their trust in him" (Psalm 2:12). We who trust Christ therefore surely need to work and pray earnestly for our nation, and its people, that they return to genuine love of God and His Word. - HMM
