TAKING HIS NAME IN VAIN

"Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain." (Exodus 20:7)

This is one of the Ten Commandments, of course, and is surely going to cause great consternation one day when men and women finally appear before God. Even Christians, too sensitive to use "God" or "Jesus" in careless or profane speech, often use such euphemisms as "gosh," or "gee," or similar expressions. Almost inadvertently, even conscientious Christians, when angered or pressed emotionally, feel constrained somehow to bring spiritual concepts into their exclamations—"for heaven's sake!", "son-of-a-gun!", etc., as well as other euphemisms such as "darn," "heck," and the like.

All of this, while deplorable, is nevertheless a sort of backhanded acknowledgement that God is real and biblical revelation is true. It is significant that adherents of other religions never take the names of their gods in vain! Who ever heard a Buddhist, or a Muslim, or a Hindu do such a thing? If they want to swear, they also will often inadvertently use the name of the true God, or His Christ, in vain. Even atheists frequently sprinkle their conversations with blasphemous Christian epithets, calling on God (who doesn't exist) to send someone to hell (which doesn't exist). "He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision" (Psalm 2:4).

In this day of loose and vulgar speech, Christians need especially to control their own tongues. Jesus said, "But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil [or, perhaps better, 'the evil one']" (Matthew 5:37). Jesus has warned that "every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment" (Matthew 12:36). - HMM

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

Brother Mike Bardon, Utah

It is exciting to live at the end of the church age. It will be increasingly filled with distress, trial and opposition to God, His truth and His people. Christians in our country have enjoyed a measure of prosperity and a lack of persecution relatively unknown in most of the rest of church history. God has been so gracious, merciful and longsuffering to the USA. Especially since the 60s, many Christians and churches have displayed characteristics similar to those in Laodicea (becoming worldly, materialistic, and lacking fire and zeal for God and holy living). The salt has lost some of its savor and the lights have not been bright. As a result, there has been a decline in candidates for home and foreign missions from our country for several years. There has also been a decline in the number of students at many Bible colleges.

As changes take place in our nation over the next four to eight years it would not be surprising to see economic challenges and a shift in world economic leadership from this country to Europe (from the Dollar to the Euro). It would not be surprising to see less national support for Israel and more for their enemies. With the state approved murder of over 50 million children through abortion since 1973, we see the disastrous effects in our culture and society. We live in a perverse and ungodly nation that is accelerating its plunge into depravity (where evil is called good and good evil).

So, what should we do? (Though tempting, NOT flee to the mountains!) May I suggest a few things the Lord has impressed upon my heart for Neva and me to do. 1. "Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity." (The entire 37th Psalm speaks to our situation). 2. Pray as never before for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. 3. Pray for national revival and that Christians might repent and be zealous. 4. The fields are white unto harvest and the laborers are few. Pray the Lord of the harvest will send forth laborers into His harvest. 5. Pray for souls to be saved and look for opportunities to love and minister to people in distress and share the Gospel with them. 6. Enjoy the Lord and praise Him for inner peace and purpose in troublesome times.

MISSIONS EMPHASIS SUNDAY

December 7, 2008

with

Brother Ken Fielder
(First Bible International)

Dear Church Family,
How do I adequately thank you for such an honor as you gave to me last Sunday? Thank you Connie for arranging and leading the day. Thank you all for the money, gifts, and of course for inviting my family! What a blessing! Thank you Bill and Lesa for the incredible meal and desserts! And thank you Pastor for allowing the day and giving me roses. I love you all. I am humbled and honored to be your Pastor's Wife and to be so loved.
Kathy

Dear Church Family,
Thank you so much for thinking of me and sending the Wal Mart cards. They came in very handy.
Sam
