TESTIMONIES FROM OUR WEB MINISTRY:

From: Mrs Ivens from N. Ireland

Message: Tongues Movement Sermon You have hit the nail on the head with this on this subject from one who was saved in the charismatic movemnet but thank God he did not answer my prayer of speaking in tongues as I thought there was something wrong with my faith.

From: The Gibsons in Sharon, Wisconsin From Email:

Message: Dear Pastor Leatherman, Thank you for your encouraging message this morning (December 21). We were snowed in from our own church service in Harvard, Illinois, and we were very thankful to be able to hear sound preaching online. Thank you! Tony, Jennifer, Kirk, and Vivianne Gibson

THE THRONE OF GRACE

"For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." (Hebrews 4:15-16)

The Lord Jesus Christ is able to help in every time of need for two reasons. First, as the Creator, He is fully able to do anything. Secondly, He has solved, once and for all, the dilemma of the sin which had separated us from God's holiness, by paying the price Himself for our salvation.

To do that, He had to become man so that He could first overcome temptations such as those to which we succumb. He could not pay the price for man's sin if He were not a man, nor could He pay it if He were a sinner. He must be a man, but a sinless man—a criterion no other man could satisfy.

Therefore, He was tempted in all points as we are. This does not mean, however, that He felt a real inward temptation to sin. He was "tested" under the most extreme circumstances to which humans could be subjected, and He always passed the test. He could never have failed, because He is also God, but now all men, and angels, and devils know that He cannot fail.

Thus, He fully understands every one of our needs, and He is indeed able and willing to help. As we come boldly to receive His amazing grace, we must first "obtain mercy" (v. 16), confessing and receiving forgiveness for our sins (1 John 1:9). Then, we are ready to boldly request grace to help in every other need. Our faithful High Priest has been there before us. He knows (not just "knows about") our problems, and is always there to help, waiting for us to come. Since "he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succor them that are tempted," and can "save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him" (Hebrews 2:18; 7:25). HMM

SEVEN RULES FOR DAILY LIVING

by Jonathan Goforth

The following rules were made by Dr. Goforth in 1894 and written on the fly-leaf of his Bible:

1. Seek to give much — expect nothing.
2. Put the very best construction on the actions of others.
3. Never let a day pass without at least a quarter of an hour spent in the study of the Bible.
4. Never omit daily morning and evening private prayer and devotion.
5. In all things seek to know God's Will and when known obey at any cost.
6. Seek to cultivate a quiet prayerful spirit.
7. Seek each day to do or say something to further Christianity among the heathen.

"That Dr. Goforth lived up to these rules there is not the least doubt. He surpassed them. His love for the Bible is well known. His Bible was always open and he took every opportunity to read it. Even after becoming blind, he had a Chinese read to him at least twelve chapters a day. His loyalty to the Bible as the Word of God and his defense of the fundamentals of the Faith have been outstanding in his career.

"He was a man of prayer and through prayer and Bible study has sought to know God's Will. It was this love for Bible reading and communion with God that gave him the power to move audiences to a conviction of sin and repentance. At all times he kept "self" in the background and relied wholly on the power of the Holy Spirit to take of the things of Jesus and reveal them unto his hearers. 'Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit' — 'But ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you' — have ever been his battle-cry. Though Dr. Goforth's preaching contained a stern denunciation of sin and would in no case tolerate compromise with sin, he has always been very tender in dealing with sinners." Rev. Allan Reoch.
