WAS JOHN LENNON A FAN OF CHRIST? - In 1969 John Lennon told a reporter that he was a fan of Jesus Christ. On July 13, 2008, BBC Radio aired the long-lost interview between John Lennon and Ken Seymour of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. Referring to statement he had made in 1966, that Christianity would vanish and the Beatles were more popular than Jesus, Lennon said in the 1969 interview: "It's just an expression meaning the Beatles seem to me to have more influence over youth than Christ. Now I wasn't saying that was a good idea, 'cos I'm one of Christ's biggest fans." Lennon also said that the Beatles were always on the side of Christ. This, of course, is patent nonsense. The Beatles were opposed to everything Jesus Christ stands for, including absolute truth, salvation only through the Cross, holiness, and gospel preaching. In 1965 Lennon had published A Spaniard in the Works, calling Jesus Christ many wicked things that we refuse to repeat and blaspheming the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. In 1970 Lennon sang: "I don't believe in Bible. I don't believe in Jesus. I just believe in me, Yoko and me, that's reality" ("God"). In 1971 he sang: "Imagine there's no heaven No hell below us, above us only sky no religion too/ You may say I'm a dreamer, but I'm not the only one/ I hope some day you'll join us, and the world will live as one" ("Imagine"). In 1977 Lennon corresponded with Oral Roberts and the 700 Club and told some friends that he was a born again Christian, but Yoko Ono soon talked him out of it and got him back on the path of occultism. In the unpublished song "You Saved My Soul," Lennon boasted how that Yoko had saved him from falling for Christianity. The mythical Lennon was a "free soul," but in reality he was a pathetic slave. Having rejected the true freedom found in Jesus Christ he was a slave to that cruel taskmaster the devil. At one point Lennon told John Green, his occult advisor, that he "felt like a hollow temple filled with many spirits, each one passing through me, each inhabiting me for a little time and then leaving to be replaced by another" (Steve Turner, The Gospel According to the Beatles). Lennon "couldn't travel anywhere without advice from a directionalist, do deals with anyone without knowing their star sign, or make plans for the future without consulting the I Ching." Many contemporary Christian musicians are fans of the Beatles, but the Beatles were definitely not fans of the Christ of the Bible.

UNITED METHODISTS SUPPORT HOMOSEXUAL MARRIAGE - United Methodist regional assemblies in California have declared their support for the state Supreme Court's ruling that overturned a ban on same-sex marriage. They urged pastors and congregations to "welcome, embrace and provide spiritual nurture" for homosexual couples ("Pastors Defy United Methodist Officials," Los Angeles Times, July 17, 2008). The denomination's Book of Discipline says the practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching and forbids pastors to conduct homosexual weddings, but many are disobeying. UM pastors in many cities have already conducted same-sex "weddings" and 82 retired pastors have signed a resolution offering to perform such weddings on behalf of pastors who feel they can't do so themselves. This is not surprising from a liberal denomination. Men and women who do not respect and obey the Bible as the infallible Word of God have no compunction to disobey and disrespect any other book.

MOSQUES, MOSQUES EVERYWHERE - The number of Islamic mosques in the West is exploding. There are 1699 in England, 1625 in France, 1220 in America, 163 in Germany (with 184 new ones planned), 80 in Canada. Sixty percent of the mosques in America opened in the last 20 years. There are nine mosques in Orlando, Florida, the home of Disneyworld. In July 2008 the largest mosque in Canada opened for business in Calgary, Alberta. The $15 million mosque, called House of Divine Light, seats 1,500 and has 48,000 square feet of space. Prime Minister Steven Harper graced the opening. More people in Britain now attend mosques than the Church of England. In America the number of attendees has increased 75% in five years. The mosques are often built with funds from Islamic nations in the Middle East and are frequently sympathetic to terrorism. Some are terrorist training centers. In September 2008 The Times of London reported that "almost half of Britain's mosques are under the control of a hardline Islamic sect whose leading preacher loathes Western values and has called on Muslims to 'shed blood' for Allah." The word mosque (Arabic masjid) means "the place where men prostrate before Allah," but a mosque is not just a religious meeting place. It is an Islamic outpost, a show of power, a sign of territorial expansion. Ursula Spuler-Stegemann, a religious scholar at Germany's University of Marburg, says, "Where you can hear the call of the minaret, from a certain Muslim perspective, that's Islamic ground" ("Domes and Minarets," Spiegel, July 16, 2008). In 1997 Turkish Prime Minister Recep Erdogan said, "The minarets are our lances, the domes our helmets, the believers our army." One Islamic group, Jamaat Ahmadiyya, which is building mosques throughout the world, says: "We will continue to build mosques to see the victory of Islam and the unity of mankind," then quotes the Quran, "That He may cause it to prevail over all other religions" (Nasim Rehmatullah, "Building of Mosques Worldwide, a speech delivered in the United States, June 2001).

COUNTRY MUSIC CONFUSION - We have warned many times about the moral danger of country music, and the reason is that so many of God's people listen to this trash. Alan Jackson is a popular country music singer who published a CD of hymns called "Precious Memories." Now he has come out with a trashy song called "Good Time." The lyrics are about someone who has worked all week and is now ready to party down at some raunchy honky tonk. "Pig in the ground, beer on ice/ Just like ole Hank taught us about/ Singin' along, Bocephus songs/ Rowdy friends all night long/ Good time Lord, we're having a good time/ ... Shot of Tequila, beer on tap/ Sweet southern woman set on my lap..." Beware of country music. It is of the world, the flesh, and the devil, but its thin veneer of "God and country" makes it palatable to some backslidden Christians. "Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul' (1 Peter 2:11).

- Pr 2:3-5 "Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding... Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God."
- Pr 8:10 "Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold."
- Pr 9:10 "...the knowledge of the holy is understanding."
- Pr 10:14 "Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction."
- Pr 12:1 "Whoso loveth instruction loveth knowledge: but he that hateth reproof is brutish."
- Pr 15:14 "The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness."
- Pr 18:15 "The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge."
- Pr 19:2 "Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good;"
- Pr 23:12 "Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge."
- Pr 24:14 "So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.
