Dear Praying Partners,

April 2010

The great missionary of the past, C.T. Studd, once said, “Christ wants not nibblers of the possible, but grabbers of the impossible.” In a world filled with spiritual darkness, economic turmoil, and prevailing skepticism, may each of us, as fellow believers, prove to this world that we serve a faithful God who delights in doing the impossible.

For many years, the Hohenfels military community in Germany was without an independent Baptist church. Ten years ago, High Point Baptist Church, another military church, had a vision for this needy area. In January 2000, this wonderful church helped my parents establish the Hohenfels Baptist Church. This month, we were honored to be added to High Point’s mission family. It is so encouraging to see their vision continue as they desire to fulfill the Great Commission. We are also thankful to the Beckwith Baptist Church, DeRidder, LA, and for the Calvary Baptist Church, Gays, IL, for sacrificially taking us on for financial support. With this new support we are now at 70% of our targeted goal! Please continue praying that we can be in Germany by the end of August. “...for with God all things are possible.” (Mark 10:27)

Our hearts were stirred during our sending church’s Bible Conference. What a thrill it was to see several of our supporting pastors and those we have visited in the past. After the conference, we traveled to six meetings throughout Florida and had a wonderful time with many pastors we knew during our college days.

God bless you as you do the impossible for Him! We are so encouraged by your kindness, support, correspondence, and prayers!
