Dear Praying Partners,

June 2010

Eight years ago, I arrived on the campus of Crown College to further my education and prepare for the ministry. Throughout those years, God has brought many people into my life to encourage and influence me to do His will.

June was a special month for me personally. I was greatly honored to be ordained into the Gospel Ministry by our sending church. Along with several men who have influenced me throughout the years, it was a great honor to have my dad as a member of my ordination council. It is such a privilege to be a preacher of the Gospel, and I praise God for what He is doing through my life.

Our pastor frequently says in his preaching that the Christian life is a faith life. Without faith, the Christian is incapable of pleasing his Lord, and faith makes the believer do the impossible. Kelly and I have set a goal to purchase our plane tickets for Germany once we have reached 85% of our support, and we will trust God to bring in the additional support. Currently, we are at 79% of our needed support, and we are praising the Lord for several new churches who have added us to their mission family. Many other churches have expressed interest in supporting us in the near future. Please pray that we will do exactly what God wants and do it all in His timing!

This month we have had a very diverse traveling schedule. Usually when we travel to churches, I plan it all in an orderly way, to make our travel time as easy as possible. This month has been an exception. Before my ordination, we had several meetings throughout North Carolina, Virginia, and New Jersey. After the ordination, we presented our ministry in several churches in Louisiana. Despite the many miles, God has brought our paths across many wonderful Christians who have a desire to see God's work accomplished in this world! Please pray that many of them will be led by the Lord to take us on for financial support. Thank you all for your prayers, love, encouragement, and sacrificial giving!

Serving Christ Together,
Bob, Kelly, and Jackson
