"The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make His paths straight." - Mark 1:3

by
Ronnie Williamson

The Acts 1:8 Mission

"The church is the guardian of the truth. It is appointed to preserve it pure, and to transmit it to future ages. The world is dependent on it for any just views of truth. The church has the power, and is entrusted with the duty, of preserving on earth a just knowledge of God and of eternal things; of the way of salvation; of the requirements of pure morality; to keep up the knowledge of that truth which tends to elevate society and to save man. It is entrusted with the Bible, to preserve uncorrupted, and to transmit to distant ages and lands. It is bound to maintain and assert the truth. It is to preserve the truth by the holy lives of its members, and to show in their walk what is the appropriate influence of truth on the soul. Whatever religious truth there is now on the earth, has been thus preserved and transmitted, and it still devolves on the church to bear the truth of God on to future times, and to diffuse it abroad to distant lands." —Albert Barnes

The missionary servant is going to have to rise to the challenge and need. Starting right where you are, see the need and find the answer. Consider the following when it comes to service and missions:

- If not you, who? – If not here, where? If not now, when?
- Why be a servant? Why not be a servant?
- Your level of service will be determined by your degree of surrender.
- Are you willing to go, but planning to stay? – Or planning to go, but willing to stay?
- As you go, as you were going, go preaching Jesus.
- How are you obeying the great commission?
- People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care.
- The mission field is the distance between yourself and a lost soul.
- Missions is blasting holes in the devil's darkness with the Glory of God.
- Missionaries are Glory Restorers.
- We have organized, glamorized, tour-ized, institutionalized, publicized, pasteurized, and homogenized till we don't even recognize what missions is all about.

Listen to David Livingstone's testimony:

For my own part, I have never ceased to rejoice that God has appointed me to the missionary office. People talk of the sacrifice I have made in spending so much of my life in Africa.

Can that be called a sacrifice which is simply paying back a small part, a great debt owing to God, which we can never repay?

Away with such a word, with such a view, and with such a thought! It is emphatically no sacrifice.

Say, rather, it is a privilege.

Anxiety, sickness, suffering, or danger now and then, may make us pause and cause the spirit to waver and sink. But let this be only for a moment.

All of these are nothing when compared with the glory which will hereafter be revealed in and for us.

I never made a sacrifice. Of this we ought not to talk, when we remember the great sacrifice made by Him who left the throne on high to give Himself for us.

The mission and opportunity to serve is all around us.

A great without has been written on heathenism. Men and women toiling without a Bible, without a Sunday to worship, without prayer, without songs of praise. They have rulers without justice and without righteousness; homes without peace; marriage without sanctity; young men and girls without ideals and enthusiasm: little children without purity, without innocence; mothers without wisdom or self-control; poverty without relief or sympathy; sickness without skillful help or tender care; sorrow and crime without a remedy; and, worst of all death without hope. The D.C. criminal squatters are at it again. Looking into the faces of America, they lie. Today, they lie about oil and oil reserves. Tomorrow, they lie again. "Now the spirit speaketh expressly that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and the doctrines of devils." It is occult doctrines. The Devil's attack speaks lies in hypocrisy, having their conscience seared with a hot iron. How can they do this? They are of the devil. Their father lies. They speak in hypocrisy. And how can they continue looking in the face of the world and lying? The answer? - Their conscience has been seared with a hot iron. Lord Chamberlain Monteagle was told to stay away from the opening sessions of Parliament in 1605. King James, the royal family and Parliament were scheduled to assemble in Westminster Hall. A murderous team of four Catholics, plus their leader, Robert Catesby, were ready under oath by a Jesuit, John Girard, to murder King James and his followers. They were going to blow them back to Scotland with gunpowder. Brethren, Pastors, the Devil hates the King James Bible. Scriptural authority and absolutes are under attack. Biblical separation and standards is rarely and, many times, never preached in, what they call, their fundamental, Bible-believing churches. It has become the Doctrines of Devils. They speak lies, for their consciences are seared with a hot iron. We are doing battle with darkness, put on the whole armour of God that you can stand on the truth, the Word of God. Hear ye nations and know, Oh congregation, what is among you? It's a spiritual warfare against the Devil and his lies.

Update

Here are some thoughts to ponder as you take note of Romans 12:1&2: 1. Are we living below our Birthright? 2. Is the Devil eating at our table? (Oh, and by invitation) 3. Does the world's designer do our fashion work?

It is a command and not a suggestion for God's child to not be conformed to this world. A dear Preacher friend and I were having lunch when he began telling about the cruise he and his wife had taken. The short version tells of the dinner on board with passengers when the waitress offered wine to the guest. The gentleman seated beside my preacher friend accepted a glass of wine. My preacher friend said, "No, I'm a pastor and do not drink alcoholic beverages." The man that took the glass of wine said "I'm a Pastor as well." Of course, an interesting conversation ensued.

For seven decades The Voice in the Wilderness has stood faithfully on the King James Bible, teaching and preaching Biblical separation from the carnal, corrupt ways of this world. As churches have embraced alcohol, dance, worldly views of music, dress, body piercing, tattoos, divorce and remarriage, The Voice in the Wilderness has faithfully held high God's unchanging Biblical standards. This is not always popular and some brethren have expressed such.

Thank you so very much for your continued prayers and support for The Voice in the Wilderness ministry. As we continue to stand on TOP (The Old Paths - Jeremiah 6:16-19) as a watchman warning brothers and sisters about the wiles of the Devil, we indeed need your prayers. May God help us all to bring HIM honor and Glory. Amen!

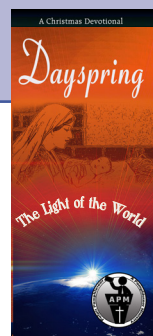

For Christ and souls,

Ronnie Williamson

NEWS BITS FROM HERE AND THERE

Gender Neutral Flying - Virgin Atlantic has updated their uniform policy to allow their staff to wear the uniforms that they feel represents them and introduced optional pronoun badges. The ticketing system will be updated also to include gender neutral gender markers. By the way, US Passports now give the option of X under gender on passports indicating "unspecified or another gender identity."

China is Coming - In the Caribbean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean, the Chinese military is increasing its presence. Their influence over Argentina, Venezuela, Brazil and other left leaning countries has allowed the Chinese government to gain visiting rights that would nationalize and operationalize any port that is controlled by a Chinese business during a time of conflict. Since 2005, China has spent more than $2.25 trillion on investments and construction in other countries; more than $73 billion on projects in Brazil alone. China values Brazil as a source for food and other needed items. In 2009, China replaced the United States as Brazil's top trading partner.

Heartbeat Definition and Scripture Perversion—Stacy Abrams (Democratic Candidate for Georgia governor) recently stated that the heartbeat heard during an ultrasound at 6 weeks was a "manufactured sound by the machine." Resulting from the Supreme Court's ruling against Roe v. Wade in 2022, this new attack strategy against life is redefining a fetal heartbeat as merely electrical activity, and that "the sound that you 'hear' is being manufactured by the ultrasound machine," said Dr. Nisha Verma an abortion focused OBGYN for the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists. The NIH states that the fetal heartbeat begins at week 4 of the pregnancy. Meanwhile, Gov. Gavin Newsome (CA) is sponsoring billboards, in states that have banned abortions, advertising for people to go to California for their abortions. The perverted messaging includes the NIV translation of Mark 12:31 and was approved in Mississippi and Oklahoma.
