PERSONAL MESSAGE

Ministry Update

Testimony from The Philippines

To God be the Glory. Sister Terry and I had a safe and fruitful trip to the Philippines. It was a privilege to preach in four Churches conducting evangelistic meetings, a mission conference and a Church Anniversary. Over 50 precious souls responded to the gospel invitation. Permit me to share one of these great soulwinning testimonies. Pastor Eleazar served 11 years in the Filipino Airforce. God called him to Pastor, and he has had a burden for the men he served with in the Airforce. Two of those men came at the Pastor's invitation to hear me preach. One man brought his wife, and praise the Lord all three got saved. The Lord met with us in each service. Even though it was 93 and 94 degrees each day, the people came. Inside one Church, it must have been 100 degrees. I have never preached in such extreme heat.

Even Pastor Jardeleza had to be treated for the heat. Thank you for your help and support making this great event possible. We gave several hundreds of dollars in Bibles and materials to the Pastors and several wives. They were all so very appreciative.

Testimony from Venezuela

Just a note from Venezuela. About 12 years ago we took a group of Bible College Students preaching and door knocking for nine days. Ninety-six precious souls were saved and Pastor Ramos started a new Church from some of those converts. Last week they had their 11th Church Anniversary with 90 saved and 2,300 in attendance. Glory to God! Again thank you for your prayers and sacrifice to make these ministries possible. Please keep praying and believing God for great things.

For Christ and souls,
Ronnie L. Williamson
