PERSONAL MESSAGE

Flood Relief

Some may never recover!

As we traveled to Eastern North Carolina with Little Ivy Baptist Church to assist the flood victims, it became apparent that the situation was complicated. Immediately, from the Deputy Sheriff, I learned that many would leave the area. After the 500 year flood due to Hurricane Floyd, and now Matthew, it was all they could take.

New Testament Baptist Church was the staging area for relief in a hard hit part of Kinston and Lenoir County. It will be months, even years, of recovery. Thank the Lord we could have a small part in reaching out to the hurting folk of Eastern North Carolina.

Relief supplies from Little Ivy Baptist Church, The Voice in the Wilderness, and Hearts with Hands was set up at New Testament where Pastor Tim Daniel and workers screened and vetted recipients for packaged supplies. Names and addresses were taken and gospel literature distributed.

What a blessing! Arrington Branch Baptist Church helped Little Ivy Baptist Church load the church bus with relief supplies. Praise the Lord!

For Christ and souls,

Ronnie Williamson

The Preachers help take your love gifts to those in need.

Pray for us!

- Travel safety and health for Lillys and Williamsons as we serve together.
- $$$$ to reprint The Book of Revelation
- We need a printer in Colombia to print the indigenous language Bibles for the jungle work. Missionary Gage is researching this possibility. Pray the Lord will provide someone in country that can produce quality Bibles at a reasonable cost for the Indian brethren.
- Begin now praying for a significant year-end offering response to sustain The Voice in the Wilderness
