PERSONAL MESSAGE

Ministry Update

The churches in Venezuela report continued growth, souls saved and the Lord's blessing in spite of the horrific political situation. President Maduro is pushing for a national charter to supersede other institutions. More than 75 have died in the demonstrations. Food shortages and economic crisis is driving the more than 90 days of protest.

Maduro said that he will never give up and what he could not do with votes he would do with weapons. The socialist dictator is determined to stay in power. He is blaming Trump for the violence just as the U.S. liberal media attacks any efforts to do the business of the people. These problems in Venezuela date back to 1999 and Hugo Chavez, just as this liberal dictatorship in the U.S. dates back to the cancer of corruption in D.C. Believe me, there are so many parallels in where Venezuela is today and where the U.S. is going!

Please pray for the Pastors, churches and missionaries serving in Venezuela. We will continue our support of these precious brethren. Anything you can do to help will be deeply appreciated. We will give these gifts when we go down to close out the jungle Scripture project. The Jungle Scriptures have been transported to Florida and now await flight to port in Colombia. Thank you for caring and sharing.
