The Voice in the Wilderness is dedicated to the spreading of the whole Gospel to the world, especially in foreign lands. Founded by medical missionary Dr. J. Royce Thomason, The Voice in the Wilderness has contended for Fundamental Christianity and American Freedom for over 60 years and operates "by faith", daily trusting God to burden hearts to support financially so that this gospel work around the world can continue.

The Voice in the Wilderness publication is a fundamental magazine, published each quarter in behalf of the work of the Lord and preservation of the liberties of our United States. Evangelist Ronnie Williamson, for over 40 years, has preached The Word of God and since 1996 used The Voice in the Wilderness publication as a powerful tool contending for the faith once delivered unto the saints.
Standing on the King James Bible, it is our desire to help the local church in revivals, evangelism, and missions conferences as an extension of the pastor's pulpit ministry. This world-wide ministry believes that His commission will be complete through the New Testament church, whether in the United States or abroad.
