My Personal Message to you

Dear Friends:

The darker the night the brighter the light. Believe me - it doesn't take much to be distinctively different from this deceived and dupped world. Nor does it mean great sacrifice to shine for JESUS in far too many churches today. Be not weary in well doing. Don't get discouraged. Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Be assured, you will not be cheated out of the best by living for and obeying God's Word.

The entrance of thy WORDS giveth light. Stay with the tried and true King James Bible. Worship in Spirit and truth. Sing Biblically sound, Christ honouring music. Dress and do all to the glory of God. Steer clear of all this shallow, carnal, worldly churchianity. That crowd has switched to many bibles (corrupt), sensual music (carnal) and the world's ways (confusion). Talk about collusion, they have colluded with the devil, embracing another Jesus, another spirit, another gospel (1 Corinthians 11:3-4). Yes, these are perilous times but also great opportunity to let the light of our SAVIOUR shine in and through us. Thank you so much for your faithfulness and friendship as together we Labour for our sweet LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST! AMEN.

For Christ and souls,

Colombia Missions • Venezuela Missions

Highlights

Barranquilla

Cartagena

In 2018, a Half Million Scriptures were given by friends of the ministry, loaded, transported, and shipped to Cartagena for distribution throughout Colombia and Venezuela.

TODAY

Sincelejo

Although travel into Venezuela is not possible today, we continue to offer prayer support, aid when possible, and other help through the border of Colombia. It is amazing how God continues to open specific opportunities for shipping, etc that have been a great blessing.

6

On a mission in Colombia to distribute Bibles in the jungle regions, God once again allowed connections to be re-established with friends from Venezuela. A great need for Scripture materials was prayed over and plans were made for future shipments.

5

God's hand uniquely brought many hearts burdened for the souls of Colombia and Venezuela, to work together to bring the good news to South America. Please pray as we organize the distribution of the shipping container of Spanish Scriptures along with two other jungle language Scriptures for the Guahibo and Puinave people.

Curaçao

The Lillys spent weeks in Caracas, Barquisimeto, and surrounding areas working in local churches and using English classes as an evangelistic tool to bring many to Christ.

When jungle regions closed, mission efforts began in the city and town regions. The Williamsons led a team to Yaritagua to work with Pastor Ramos in evangelizing a new area. The new converts later grew to become a church of over a thousand and act as a launching point for multitudes of church plants.

Venezuela

Cristobal

The Voice in the Wilderness began reaching into the Venezuela and Colombia areas by partnering with Missionary Sophie Muller who traversed the rivers along the border opening the door of the jungle to the gospel through language and literacy work. Bibles translated by Sophie were printed, hauled into the jungle and distributed. Then...the political strong-arm closed the jungle. Some 20 years later, Indians from those regions came out looking for more copies of those Scriptures. With the help of many fellow Christians, The Voice printed a new supply of Bibles and continues this revitalized effort today.

The PORT at Cartagena

A Half Million Scriptures Await Distribution

Printing, Assembling, Warehousing, Packing, Transporting, shipping...the hours, phone calls, messaging, people, money, time are countless and seemingly endless, yet, with God, ALL things are possible. Now this container sits in port in Colombia as beauracratc paperwork stalls progress. Please pray for:

- timely resolution of all paperwork
- increased finances to meet bills due for this project
- organization for storage and distribution of Scriptures as container is released.

Bible Must Be Distributed Widely Throughout the Nation

James McHenry, one of the signers of the Constitution of the United States, was a member of the Continental Congress, a state legislator, a soldier and the U.S. Secretary of War who supervised the establishment of the United States Military Academy at West Point.

He was also a physician, having studied under the renowned Dr. Benjamin Rush, himself a signer of the Declaration of Independence. James McHenry served with distinction under General Washington on the medical staff during the Revolutionary War. Fort McHenry, where, in 1812, the battle with Britain occasioned the writing of our national anthem, was named after him.

In 1813 he became the president of the first Bible society in Baltimore. He conveys the urgency of distributing Bibles to the public in an article to solicit funds for the society:

“Neither, in considering this subject, let it be overlooked, that public utility pleads most forcibly for the general distribution of the Holy Scriptures.

“The doctrine they preach, the obligations they impose, the punishment they threaten, the rewards they promise, the stamp and image of divinity they bear, which produces a conviction of their truths, can alone secure to society, order and peace, and to our courts of justice and constitutions of government, purity, stability and usefulness.

“In vain, without the Bible, we increase penal laws and draw entrenchments around our institutions. Bibles are strong entrenchments. Where they abound, men cannot pursue wicked courses, and at the same time enjoy quiet conscience.

“Consider also, the rich do not possess aught more precious than their Bible, and that the poor cannot be presented by the rich with anything of greater value. Withhold it not from the poor. It is a book of councils and directions, fitted to every situation in which man can be placed. It is an oracle which reveals to mortals the secrets of heavens and the hidden will of the Almighty....

“It is an estate, whose title is guaranteed by Christ, whose delicious fruits ripen every season, survive the worm, and keep through eternity. It is for the purpose of distributing this divine book more effectually and extensively among the multitudes, whose circumstances render such a donation necessary, that your cooperation is most earnestly requested.” nccs.net
