The Voice in the Wilderness is a nonprofit, independent incorporation, founded by Rev. Dr. J. Royce Thomason D.P.D. Ph.D., evangelist and medical missionary. The organization is dedicated to the spreading of the whole gospel to the world, especially in foreign lands. The program consists of building mission stations, supporting American missionaries and native pastors by partnering with the local church in various areas of ministry and preaching Christ to the lost. We are supported by the gifts of those who care. Contributions to The Voice in the Wilderness for projects or to support the ministry of a missionary will be used as indicated by the donor following approved policies and procedures. Gifts are tax deductible and should be made out to The Voice in the Wilderness.

MY PERSONAL MESSAGE TO YOU

Dear Friends in Christ,

What an extraordinary ministry—The Voice in the Wilderness! “Why?” you say. Are you boasting successes superior to the work of others? It’s as simple as A-B-C.

A is for “Acts.” Dr. Luke recorded HIS empowered church’s “Acts” of the Holy Spirit in obedience to the Great Commission.

B is for “Bible.” God’s Holy, inspired, infallible Book is our sole authority for faith and practice.

C is for “Consummation.” Christ the Alpha and Omega, the first and the last is the consummation—all in all. In Him we move and have our being.

Now, permit me to elaborate the extraordinary ABC’s of The Voice in the Wilderness. For almost 7 decades a God called evangelist simply did what the New Testament evangelist, preacher, and disciples in the Books of Acts did. The Voice in the Wilderness is not a missions board or a para-church organization. After the home-going of founder, Dr. J. Royce Thomason in 2006, Evangelist Ronnie L. Williamson continues the preaching, teaching, and missionary work started decades ago and rooted in the “Acts” of the New Testament church. Following the Pauline model, The Voice in the Wilderness has historically served through the local church and pastor in the jungle and city whether in Africa or Venezuela preaching Christ to precious souls. A national, already knowing the language, culture, climate and food is better equipped from day one to take every penny of resource to the max. Using that New Testament paradigm, Evangelists J. Royce Thomason and Ronnie Williamson have endeavored to take the gospel from Jerusalem, Judaea, and Samaria unto the uttermost. A is for “Acts” obedient to HIS Great Commission.

Standing on the Preserved, perfect, pure Word of God, The Voice in the Wilderness continues to “hold forth” the King James Bible, preaching, “thus saith the Lord.” Modern Bible versions translated from the corrupted, critical text by men not holding to the inspired, infallible scriptures preserved without error from generation to generation are emphatically rejected. Far too many have fallen prey to perilous times and moved the ancient Landmarks. The Voice in the Wilderness continues, without apology to stand on the unchanging Scriptures and preach without apology all the Word of God. The Voice in the Wilderness is willing to confront the tough issues that sadly many preachers avoid. One evangelist told me, “I preach the same messages I preached 40 years ago.” However, 40 years ago the internet, ipods, facebook and young people on the back pew texting did not exist. God’s Word is as relevant and applicable today as it was 50 or 100 years ago. The preacher must stand and sound the trump.

The WORD GOD

Dear Christian Reader, “Sadly, I say I have lived long enough to hear preachers I respect, have fellowshiped with, even preached for, say things like, ‘there are errors in the Bible, this is not in the original manuscripts, or expressed that the NIV, NAS, and other versions differ little from the King James Bible therefore must be given some consideration or legitimacy’.”

On several occasions I have been caught smack-dab in the middle of this KJB, new versions, textual debate. There are families, churches, and Christian colleges divided over this issue. Some ministries are torn as where or even whether to take a stand. From the pulpit to the pew, there is division. There have been some hot personality clashes. Many have chosen to keep church or school loyalties no matter what. Keep in mind; God is not the author of confusion. The whole matter is really quite simple. Permit me to give a brief outline that may make some spiritual sense. I trust most reading this desire to do what is right and certainly desire to have God’s inspired, infallible Word to read, study, and guide their lives. That being the case, consider this:

I. The Argument – “...My words shall not pass away...” (Matthew 24:35). “All scripture is given by inspiration of God...” (II Timothy 3:16). “....Thou shalt preserve them” [His words] (Psalm 12:6 & 7). Has God preserved His Word that today man might speak definitively from divine record? Or is it all up for grabs from some eclectic hodge-podge of critical minds? Have these higher minds by self-appointment assumed the final say and authority? Does the one who is eternal and sovereign, the one true and living God, find Himself impotent to preserve for all generations His inspired, infallible Word? “For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost” (II Peter 1:21). Once in the miracle and power of it all, God gave His Word complete and inspired; but now it’s up to some elitist pool of scholarly minds to sort through a group of obscure, disordered texts that differ significantly, and yet, compile in a methodically, scientific fashion a collection bound and stamped Holy Bible.

Critically speaking, if the word (critical) can be used here, these modern day versions differ in translation. What percentage proves heresy? If the blood or deity of Christ is compromised in some verses, or even one verse, but clear in others, does that version still deserve credibility? Does the doctrine of inspiration mean anything today? Is it important whether God has preserved His Word for every generation of Church history? You tell me. Each and every one of us must decide where we stand. Take a look at the following verses and versions.

KJB

Luke 4:4 “And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.”

Colossians 1:14 “In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins.”

Hebrews 1:3 “...when he had by himself purged our sins,”

1 John 1:7 “But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.”

NAS

Luke 4:4 “And Jesus answered him, ‘It is written, ‘man shall not live on bread alone’.”

Colossians 1:14 “in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.”

Hebrews 1:3 “When He had made purification of sins,”

1 John 1:7 “but if we walk in the Light as He Himself is in the Light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.”

NIV

Luke 4:4 “Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Man does not live on bread alone.’”

Colossians 1:14 “in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins,”

Hebrews 1:3 “After he had provided purification for sins,”

1 John 1:7 “But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin.”

Was God’s Word lost amongst several thousand flawed manuscripts and through some folk smarter than us all by a pick-and-choose labor of scientific scholarship compiled what God could not preserve? How many generations have had accurate scriptures if this Critical (eclectic) Text is to be accepted? Before the Critical Text, what generation had the Word of God? Why the confusion? Why and when did the confusion start? Have you checked out what the proponents of this Critical Text and proliferation of new Bible versions believe about the inspiration of scripture, as well as the preservation of God’s Word for today? Before the confusion, had God not blessed the Texts used for so many years by the translators of the KJB? In those Old Testament Masoretic and New Testament Textus Receptus Texts, God has promised to preserve His Word and is that so hard to believe? What did these Critical Text translators think about infallibility? How can each believer be accountable or obedient to scripture if it is uncertain the Scripture exists today? Where is pulpit integrity if there is doubt in the Text of Scripture?

II. The Attack – “Yea, hath God said...” (Genesis 3:1). Don’t forget for a moment that Satan is a liar and there is no truth in him (John 8:44). The devil desires to destroy, cloud the truth, and I am fully persuaded, bring confusion and division by the modern day proliferation of Bible versions. At first a small percentage of changes then a gender-neutral version and total deception. Be warned—God’s inspired, infallible, and preserved Word is under attack.

III. The Association – Who is it exactly that is pushing these versions? Whether it’s Rupert Murdoch, secular publishing giants, or even big money “Christian” publishers be assured it’s not fundamental Bible believers and churches. Please read April 2002 The Voice in the Wilderness “The Bible’s Money Trail” and “Secular/Sacred Money Connection- winter 2010.

IV. The Accessibility – Do we have accessibility to the original writings or “autographa? By the way, did Paul, Timothy, Peter, or other New Testament writers have the original Hebrew manuscripts? Yet, they said, “Thou hast known the Holy Scriptures” (II Tim. 3:15); “All scripture is given by inspiration of God...” (II Tim 3:16); “We have also a more sure word...” (II Peter 1:19); “They have Moses and the prophets” (Luke 16:29). Even though the New Testament writers did not have the original OT manuscripts, they had no doubt about possessing God’s Holy Word.

V. The Ability – If each and every believer could access the original manuscripts, would each believer have the ability to read the original language?

Yet, each believer is told to read and heed the scriptures. Memorize, meditate, study and obey are all a part of the believers responsibility. God has preserved His Word so that obedience is possible regardless of ability in original languages.

VI. The Availability – “Jesus answered and said unto them, ye do err, not knowing the scripture, nor the power of God (Matthew 22:29). Without the availability of God’s Word, how could that be true? Paul reasoned out of the scriptures (Acts 17:2), and believers are comforted (Romans 15:4). How can we study to be approved unto God (II Tim. 2:15) if God did not make His Word available? Are these elite minds indispensable? – John 16:13 says, “...when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth....” Does the believer from the pulpit to the pew need to be proficient in Hebrew and Greek for guidance in all truth? Was the promise not given to every believer that through the Holy Spirit each child of God could study the scriptures with divine guidance discerning truth from error? Have we regressed to this Romanish/Reformation era where only those of the established church hierarchy hold the secrets of illumination? Beware of this elitist mentality. Nothing wrong with degrees, and scholarship, but remember the “Spirit will guide you into all truth.” Does that eliminate the Pastor/ Teachers and those gifted among us? Absolutely not! Read 1Corinthians 12 and other passages to see the significance of, as well as, the warning against viewing one member superior to another.

The church today has God's Inspired, Infallible, and Preserved Word. There are no errors in His Holy Book and every believer can live by that Truth and die by that Truth. Every preacher and teacher can stand firm, holding forth the Bible and confidently declare, "Thus saith the Lord."

Issues abound, and if the believer does not have absolute authority for answers "what can the righteous do?" This is where the proliferation of Bible versions becomes such a critical issue. For me it is simple, and this is what I believe!

I believe God has preserved His Word for us today from the original manuscripts or "autographa" down through the manuscripts received by the church and traditionally used in translation until the late 1800s. It is through this pure and preserved lineage we have the Authorized or King James Bible of today. Note it is not the English of the 1600s, but it is the English used in the meticulously accurate translation of God's Word. Neither Shakespeare nor other great writers achieved the beauty and faithfulness found in the KJB English. Scholars have commented that "The vocabulary of both testaments of the KJB are surprisingly small; a few more than 8 thousand words are used—less by half than the vocabulary of Milton and about one-third the vocabulary of Shakespeare."¹ The KJB is accurate in translation, beautiful in language, easy to read, and masterful in memorization.

Please take careful note the root and origin of today's modern versions. You can do the comparison, or should I say contrast, yourself. The NIV, NASV and others omit and rewrite. Not only do their translators seemingly take liberties, but also those who associate with and endorse these modern versions reflect the very compromise God's Word clearly condemns. Are all KJB readers "true Bible believing fundamental Christians?" The answer is no. However, we are talking about the source of the truth not just individuals. If the source is the pure, preserved Word of God, error will be exposed. However, if the source is corrupt, error is inevitable. Statements like "not found in some manuscripts” or “this should have been translated” lead to “there are errors in the Bible.” Check it out for yourself and note not only the words omitted but also the entire passages missing. These modern versions are not easier than the KJB to read, which has been proven historically in the American school system as well as through Dr. Rudolf Flesch’s test of readability. The source of the modern versions is apparent. The big money driven publishers exploiting the Bible market is as plain as the nose on your face. Which Bible – if anybody is confused, that confusion is not of God nor is this revisionary, money driven, proliferation of corrupt Bible versions. We do have God’s inspired, infallible, preserved Word for the Church today, and the source is clear as well as which translation!

One percent error leads way for two percent and ten percent. How many words or verses can a version change or omit before it is rejected? If one manuscript has obvious errors, and the same is true of the second, third, and entire collection of manuscripts until the translators must pick and piece together a Bible, can it be reliable? Can truth originate in error? Would God providentially preserve His Word through obviously corrupted text?

On the other hand, would it not make spiritual sense, let alone stand to reason, that His promise to “preserve His Words” and that His “Words would not pass away” include a reliable source of texts for translation? Also, with His promise to “guide into all truth” would be His provision of a translation that is more than someone’s eclectic pick-and-choose among thousands of flawed manuscripts. Then in light of the Great commission and the need for Bibles in many languages does it not make spiritual sense for translators to use one reliable source of texts than to repeatedly sort through thousands of manuscripts with thousands of discrepancies to arrive at a translation for a particular language group? Oh, you say, but the missionary does not have that process once the critical text is complete. Yes, and that stresses my point further. Now, the poor missionary must rely on the eclectic text that have repeatedly gone through edition changes in order to translate into a needed language version a Bible that had been lost among this vast assortment of manuscripts. Yes, complicated and confusing, but no, that is not of God!

May I introduce you to a religion that is quite emphatic about preservation? I hold in my hand a copy of the Koran. It is written from right to left in Arabic. Surah I, The Opening (Fatehah) says, “In the name of Allah, the Beneficent, the Merciful. All praise is due Allah, the Lord of the Worlds.” Surah II, The Cow (Baqarah) continues, “Alif Lam Mim. This Book, there is no doubt in it, is a guide to those who guard against evil.” In the English preface to this Koran are these words:

“I invite those who may be reading this Qur’an for the first time to look deeply and objectively into its meaning. The Muslims were promised by Allah that this book would always remain free from falsehood, alteration and misinterpretation. We are the only people following a Divine religion who can claim to have a book which is pure and unaltered, which had been given to the Prophet directly from God and written down in his lifetime and preserved unchanged thereafter."

Did you notice the wording? "The only people...who claim to have a book which is pure and unaltered...preserved unchanged..."

VII. The Answer – Jesus said, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away" (Matthew 24:35). The Bible repeatedly asserts the inspiration, infallibility and preservation of Holy Scripture. From stone and clay tablets to animals' skins and scrolls, God breathed His Word to Holy men by the Holy Spirit. Manuscripts preserved the Word of God for the early church as down through the ages God continued to give His Scripture to generation after generation. The printing press eventually made the Bible even more available until even the farmers and mothers could read the wonderful Word of Life for themselves. Translators worked diligently to provide God's Word in various languages. Many died as the enemy tried to stamp out the Holy Scripture. But God's promise is sure. As Moses took the blood and sprinkled the Book, "...Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you" and by God's blood He purchased His church so to this day we may have His Word preserved, sealed in blood. Even the blood of martyrs has brought to us today the text from which the King James Bible was translated. It is not the KJB versus the NIV or some other new translation. The point is clearly the source used for translation, whether English, Spanish, French, German, KJB, NIV, NAS, etc. The source, for example of the KJB is the Hebrew Masoretic Text and the Greek Textus Receptus. The modern versions came from the Critical Text which were texts corrupted and unused by the church for 1500 years.

God has preserved His Word for this generation in Text that has resulted in the KJB as well as Spanish, French, German, Russian, and many other languages. From the pulpit to the pew, believers can be confident in "thus saith the Lord."

My dear reader, look upon the Book embossed in gold with the title Holy Bible. "Sing them over again to me, Wonderful Words of Life; let me more of their beauty see, Wonderful Words of Life."

"Holy Bible, book divine, Precious treasure, thou art mine."

"We praise Thee for the radiance that from the hallowed page, A lantern to our footsteps, shines on from age to age."

"Mid the storms of doubt and unbelief we fear, Stands a Book eternal that the world holds dear; Thru the restless ages it remains the same – 'Tis the Book of God, and the Bible is its name!”

God has spoken. His Words are very clear and very simple to understand. Please do not make it complicated.

I hold in my hand a copy of The Origin of Species by Charles Darwin. Listen to these remarks: “The publication of Darwin’s The Origin of Species in 1859 marked a dramatic turning point in scientific thought. The volume had taken Darwin more than twenty years to publish, in part because he envisioned the storm of controversy it was certain to unleash. Indeed, selling out its first edition on its first day, The Origin of Species revolutionized science, philosophy, and theology. Darwin’s reasoned, documented arguments carefully advance his theory of natural selection and assertion that species were not created all at once by a divine hand....” Charles L. Surret in his book, Which Greek Text? writes, “There seems to be a parallel between the integration of Darwinian Evolutionary thought into the theology of committed Bible-believers of the late 19th and early 20th centuries with that of the acceptance of Westcott-Hort at the same period in history. The mood, especially in Europe and North America, favored scientific investigation as an ultimate source of truth. The Liberals capitalized on this “modern” way of thinking to produce what has become known as Higher Criticism. Fundamentalists rejected those Liberal conclusions, but still felt the need to accommodate what they thought were the findings of science. In the area of Creationism, Bible-believers replaced the long-held view of six literal days of creation with some type of evolutionary explanation, such as the “Day-Age” or the “Gap” theory. Christians today do not castigate the late C.I. Scofield nor doubt either his salvation or sincerity on the basis of his Gap Theory beliefs of creation. Simply put, he and others like him did not have the information to combat what they thought were conclusions forced by science and scholarship.”² Any question, just stand on The Book. True science will catch up and agree with The Book. The power and preservation of God’s Word is further emphasized by crimson theme. Pastor D. T. Young of Edinburgh and London preached from Hebrews 9:19 “The Crimson Book.” Under point number 1, “The Book” is an Eternal Subject of Blood-Sprinkling, Young says, “How much nobler a Book is ours than the Book Moses had! Woe be to us if we undervalue it, depreciate it, or neglect it! Compare the Mosaic Bible with the Christian Bible, and it is “as moonlight unto sunlight, or as water unto wine.” Nay, it is the cold grey dawn to the blazing meridian. Yet thank God for the Book that Moses sprinkled.

“When Moses sprinkled his Book with Blood he proclaimed an eternal necessity. The Bible must evermore be blood-besprinkled. Only a Crimson Book can meet our heartmost needs. And the Christian Bible is all over, and through and through, sprinkled with blood. Yet, with “the Blood of Jesus Christ,” which Paul did not scruple to call the Blood of God.

“Meanwhile, who can deny that the Bible is blood-besprinkled? We do not like that word blood. “The red word,” one of our novelists calls it. But the very word runs through the Bible. And the doctrine of the atoning virtue of Christ’s blood is the great characterization of scripture. It is prophesied in the Old Testament, and in the New Testament revealed. The whole book is crimson with redemption. I cannot pretend to be able to explain the mystery of the fact, but assured fact it is.

“Our Bible is sprinkled with the divine Redeemer’s blood. Let sneerers dub the Book as gory; we glory in its ruby redness. To us the blood-besprinkledness of the Bible is the guaranteed of its everlasting veracity.

“How know we whether we can safely accept its words? The blood of Jesus streaks its every page. The Book is sealed with Jesus’ blood”.³

Out of the thousands that read this, many may disagree. I personally have preacher friends who do not hold this view of The Book and The Blood. The intent here is not to alienate or divide saved, Bible believing people. However, in these days of drift and compromise, I see a dangerous trend creeping in among us. Music, dress standards, associations, and tolerance of issues that once would have immediately been scripturally addressed are now overlooked, excused and even embraced.

“Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:” (I Peter 5:8) “...earnestly contend for the faith...there are certain men crept in unawares” (Jude 3 & 4), and we must not become a casualty. May we all hear our Lord say, “Well done, thou good and faithful servant.” “My words shall not pass away. Thou shalt preserve them.” Amen. Even so come, Lord Jesus.

A Bit of News

Weapons of Mass Destruction are still debated. In Israel Benjamin Netanyahu has accused Hamas supported by Syria and Iran of releasing floating bombs that have washed up along Israel’s coast. Security against Hizbullah Terrorists has been intensified. Plots against Israeli and American targets have been thwarted. Homegrown terrorists now propose an even more complicated threat. Hostilities and persecution of both Jews and Christians is on the increase worldwide. These are perilous days. Look up...

The King James Bible Declaration

WHEREAS 2011 marks the 400th Anniversary of the 1611 King James Bible,

AND WHEREAS the King James Bible is based on the Masoretic Old Testament (compiled from the ancient Old Testament manuscripts, guarded and handed down, by the Masorete Hebrew Scholars) and the Received Text (known as the Textus Receptus, Majority text or Byzantine Greek text) preserved by God through Godly men (Ps. 119:89),

AND WHEREAS over 47 spiritually qualified scholars academically superior in Biblical languages and related areas in which no group of translators has before or since been endowed by God to undertake this divinely inspired work (II Tim. 2:21),

AND WHEREAS modern Bible versions have been heavily influenced by corrupted text discarded and rescued from obscurity being revised, updated, altered by men that denied inspiration and inerrancy, men who were evolutionists, rationalists, and theological liberals (I Tim. 6:20&21; II Cor. 2:17; II Tim. 3:8; I Thess. 4:7; [I Thess. 4:1-8]),

AND WHEREAS the Biblical English of the King James Bible is faithful to the original Hebrew and Greek text proven for 400 years in spiritual power, clarity, readability, poetic majesty, reliability yet with a surprisingly small vocabulary simplicity yet soaring to lofty heights (Matt. 5:18; Ps. 119:9-11, 89, 103, 105, 152, 160; II Tim. 3:16),

AND WHEREAS God is not the author of confusion so obvious among users of modern versions when congregations watch projections on big screens of multiple Bible versions and cannot even turn together as believers in the same Bible to read, recite, or study the scriptures together (I Cor. 14:33),

AND WHEREAS King James Bible users hold dear the privilege to take their Bibles to church with the ability to read in unison, search the scriptures together, memorize and quote the Bible together plus follow the pastor as he reads and preaches from the King James Bible (Amos 3:3; Acts 17:11),

AND WHEREAS the modern Bible proponents continue to produce version after version seemingly unable to settle on the best version but ever switching, changing and publishing more versions (Matt. 21:12; Mark 11:15-17; Luke 19:45-48; James 1:8),

AND WHEREAS the source and text of the King James Bible is the standard for the inspired and divinely preserved Word of God, and without doubt English speaking people throughout the earth will continue to see God use His Book, the King James Bible in the preaching, teaching, soul winning, church planting, and missionary endeavors until all shall be fulfilled (Luke 11:35; Rev. 22:18-19),

BE IT RESOLVED the English speaking Christian needs to keep reading, studying, memorizing, teaching, preaching, and holding forth the Word of Life - the old King James Bible. Amen. (Ps. 119:9, 11, 38, 89; John 1:1-5; Eph. 4:14; Eph. 5:6; Phil. 2:16; I Peter 3:15; II Peter 1:19-21; Rev. 22:18-19)

The Voice in the Wilderness would like to request your participation in the above resolution supporting the King James Bible. Please enlist as many signatures of family and friends that would stand with us in celebration of the 400th anniversary of God's preserved Word for English speaking people around the world. Public Education

A Case of the Heart

If the heart is wrong no evidence or argument will persuade. Examine your heart!

Would you have an evolutionists teach the book of Genesis from a Darwinian perspective to your children in Sunday school? Would your Pastor have a Muslim Cleric hold a weeklong youth meeting in your church? Or how about a fine Christian church member teaches the Koran in Sunday school for six weeks. What about sending your child to summer camp conducted by atheists, homosexuals, or Christ deniers. Certainly a Christian parent or pastor would not do such a thing. Or would they?

Is it reasonable to ask a question of the heart? Please grant this inquiry. Are you willing and committed to obey The Word of God? If the answer is NO please stop reading now.

However, if the answer is Yes, then the following will be of great benefit.

Obviously many have excuses, arguments and rescue devices, ie. "Christian Schools are too expensive and I do not see that much difference in the product, besides that's no more than a glorified Sunday school. We have Christian teachers in our public school. As a public school teacher I am a missionary. I don't shelter my children; and after all, they are missionaries in the public school. The Bible doesn't say anything about my responsibility to send my child to a Christian School". But, again are you willing and committed to obey God's Word?

Consider first of all The Why of Education

Why does your child go to school in the first place? The government requires you to educate your child. The government provides tax funded (lottery funded?) schools, teachers, curricula and textbooks to educate your child. So for 12 plus years and thousands of hours your child can be educated, taught and trained by the state run government schools. That's easy, neat, clean, inexpensive and good academics – yes? Why does the State want to do this for you? Is it because the State loves your child and wants to help your family do God's will? Duh!

"I am much afraid that schools will prove to be the great gates of hell unless they diligently labor in explaining the Holy Scriptures, engraving them in the hearts of youth. I advise no one to place his child where the Scriptures do not reign paramount. Every institution in which men are not increasingly occupied with the Word of God must become corrupt."
(Who said this?)

But then what does the Bible say? What does the Bible say about education? What does the Bible say about your child and your responsibility? Please open your Bible and read the following for yourself:

P s a l m 1 : 1 .

“Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.”

Jesus said: “He that is not with Me is against Me; and he that gathereth not with Me scattereth abroad.”Mat.12:30.

As fathers we are to bring our children “up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.” Eph.6:4.

“Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord” Eph.5:10.

“For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth.” Eph.5:9.

“And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.” Eph.5:11.

Jesus said: “He that is not with Me is against Me; and he that gathereth not with Me scattereth abroad.”Mat.12:30. I personally spent 13 years in the public school system. To this day it is a battle to overcome the indoctrination, influence and worldview deeply imbedded after countless hours of saturation with Christless thinking. As kind as possible I am saying, anyone who does not know that government education is not for Jesus is not committed to the Scriptures.

As fathers we are to bring our children “up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord” Eph.6:4. This is a firm and loving training of the child by putting the Lord's Word in the child's mind and heart. “Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord” Eph.5:10. Dear parent and notably fathers, you are responsible to your child and accountable to God that science, mathematics, history, language, literature and all teaching including the teacher be “acceptable unto the Lord.” The father is so ordered by God not the government. Can this be achieved in a government run school, secular textbooks and a system aggressively anti-

School-Age Child =

God and anti-Bible? “For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth” Eph.5:9. Is evolution truth? Is sexual perversion acceptable truth? Is lewd, crude and rude language the fruit of the Spirit in all truth? Is revisionist history truth? Are Godless textbooks truth? “And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them” Eph.5:11. The Christian should not partake, not associate with but openly reprove and rebuke the unfruitful works of darkness. Farming out your responsibility to the government education system is a far cry from reproving and rebuking. Would you have an evolutionist teach the book of Genesis to your children in Sunday school? Would your Pastor have a Muslim Cleric hold a week long youth meeting? Or how about a fine Christian church member teaches the Koran in Sunday school. Then why enroll your child in a Godless system, with Christless textbooks, taught in most cases by the unsaved? Read Psalm 1:1. “Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.” Tell me how in the name of discernment and love can a Christian parent educate their precious child in government schools and obey Psalm 1:1? It is an impossibility!

We talked about The Why of education. Now consider The What of Education:

The What of Education. What is Education according to the Bible not according to the state? Col.2:3 says “In Whom (Christ) are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.” Wisdom and knowledge is in Christ. Yet man in his attempt at knowledge rejects, ignores and spurns Christ to man’s own futility. The world is “Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth” 2Tim. 3:7. Why? --Because Christ is the TRUTH. Reject Christ and you reject the opportunity to understand this universe, the complexities of life and the wonder of it all. As a matter of fact one is not even able – did you see that- not even able to come to the knowledge of the truth without first coming to Christ “In Whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.” So many educators today stand and say thus- and-so happened 500 millions years ago. They state such as absolute fact and expect students to accept it, learn it and regurgitate such at exam time. However, these same educators say there is no absolute truth and Christians are dangerous to children because Christians claim to know absolute truth. Tragically these educators who do not believe in absolute truth teach their theories of evolution, millions of years, and no God ideas as absolute truth. How can that be and worse yet - how can Christian parents subject their vulnerable babies to thousands of hours of such “truth denying pseudo-education”? Churches today are full of parents offering their children on the God-Denying altar of public, government run, state schools and pastors wonder what is happening with the conduct, lifestyles and behavior of church people. Where are spiritual growth, maturity and discernment? Why are young people dropping out of church or going off to some neo-group?

Spurgeon said, "The knowledge of Christ is the most excellent of sciences." There can be no Christ honoring education in a system that rejects Jesus Christ. Knowledge of the 3R's is perverted apart from Christ.

It is the father's duty to protect his child from the liar, evolution, atheism, humanism, relativism, and any such teaching against Christ. Countless illustrations from public school classrooms and textbooks beyond your endurance to read could be cited here that indeed would shock many unknowing parents. If this sort of evidence is your requirement may I refer you to None Dare Call It Education by John A. Stormer from Liberty Bell Press. This volume will give you additional references for further study.

"Education is thus a most powerful ally of humanism. What can a theistic Sunday School's meeting for an hour once a week and teaching only a fraction of the children, do to stem the tide of the five-day program of humanistic teaching?" Humanism: A New Religion, 1930

"Give me your four year olds, and in a generation I will build a socialist state." (Vladimir Lenin)

"I am much afraid that schools will prove to be the great gates of hell unless they diligently labor in explaining the Holy Scriptures, engraving them in the hearts of youth. I advise no one to place his child where the Scriptures do not reign paramount. Every institution in which men are not increasingly occupied with the Word of God must become corrupt." (Martin Luther)

Please examine the evidence but also look deeply into the WHY of you heart. Why do you educate your child the way you do?

Mr. John Rogers, minister of gospel in London, was the first martyr in Queen Mary's reign, and was burnt at Smithfield, February 14, 1554.—His wife with nine small children, and one at her breast following him to the stake; with which sorrowful sight he was not in the least daunted, but with wonderful patience died courageously for the gospel of JESUS CHRIST.

Some few days before his death, he wrote the following Advice to his Children.

Give ear my children to my words Whom God hath dearly bought, Lay up his laws within your heart, and print them in your thoughts.
I leave you here a little book for you to look upon,
That you may see your father's face
when he is dead and gone:
Who for the hope of heavenly things,
While he did here remain,
Gave over all his golden years to prison and to pain.
Where I, among my iron bands, inclosed in the dark.
Not many days before my death,
I did compose this work:
And for example to your youth,
to whom I wish all good,
I send you here God's perfect truth, and seal it with my blood....

Keep always God before your eyes,
With all your whole intent,
Commit no sin in any wise,
keep his commandment.
Abhor that arrant whore of ROME,
and all her blasphemies,
And drink not of her cursed cup,
obey not her decrees.
Give honor to your mother dear,
remember well her pain,
And recompence her in her age,
with the like love again.
Be always ready for her help,
and let her not decay, Remember well your father all,
who would have been your stay.
Give of your portion to the poor,
as riches do arise,
And from the needy naked soul,
turn not away your eyes:....
If GOD hath given you increase,
and blessed well your store,
Remember you are put in trust,
and should relieve the poor.
Beware of foul and filthy lust,
let such things have no place,
Keep clean your vessels in the LORD,
that he may you embrace.
Ye are the temples of the LORD,
for you are dearly bought,
And they that do defile the same,
shall surely come to nought.
Be never proud by any means,
build not your house too high,
But always have before your eyes,
that you are born to die.
Defraud not him that hired is,
your labour to sustain,
But pay him still without delay,
his wages for his pain.
And as you would that other men against you should proceed,
Do you the same to them again,
when they do stand in need....
Ask counsel always of the wise,

give ear unto the end,
and ne'er refuse the sweet rebuke of him that is thy friend.
Be always thankful to the LORD,
with prayer and with praise, Begging of him to bless your work,
and to direct your ways.
Seek first, I say, the living GOD,
and always him adore,
And then be sure that he will bless,
your basket and your store.
And I beseech Almighty GOD, replenish you with grace,
That I may meet you in the heavens,
and see you face to face.
And though the fire my body burns,
contrary to my kind,
That I cannot enjoy your love
according to my mind:
Yet I do hope that when the heavens shall vanish like a scroll,
I shall see you in perfect shape,
in body and in soul....
Though here my body be adjudg'd in flaming fire to fry,
My soul I trust, will straight ascend to live with GOD on high....
I know I am a sinner born,
from the original,
And that I do deserve to die
by my fore-father's fall:
But by our SAVIOUR's precious blood, which on the cross was spilt,
Who freely offer'd up his life,
to save our souls from guilt:
I hope redemption I shall have,
and all who in him trust,
When I shall see him face to face, and live among the just.
Why then should I fear death's grim look since CHRIST for me did die,
For King and Caesar, rich and poor,
the force of death must try....
Farewell my children to the world,
where you must yet remain;
The LORD of hosts be your defence,

'till we do meet again.

Farewell my true and loving wife,
my children and my friends,
I hope in heaven to see you all,
when all things have their end.

If you go on to serve the LORD,
as you have now begun,
You shall walk safely all your days,
until your life be done.

GOD grant you so to end your days,
as he shall think it best,

That I may meet you in the heavens,
where I do hope to rest.

ENGLAND PRIMER*

Call this "in your face" or "shock and awe," but please stay with me just a moment longer. In your mind, picture a glass of refreshing water. Now into that glass of clean, clear water place one drop of a deadly poison. Would you drink that glass of water? It contains only a minuscule amount of poison. Now suppose a news flash—your water supply has been contaminated with fecal matter. Reportedly it's only "so many parts per million." Yet, do you want to bathe, cook, or drink from that water source?

Now, that fine, Christian, maybe even a member of your church, is a public school teacher. How does he/she teach a science text based on evolution, nowhere mentioning God, creation, even denying the Biblical account of creation? How does that Christian teacher use a health text or a math book that presents ungodly ideas, sinful examples and illustrations as teaching tools? How do you teach a history book void of God and His record with a text giving more print to Marilyn Monroe or some "pop celebrity" than George Washington? As a teacher, how do you function in a system opposed to Christ but sympathetic to New Age and Islam? How many drops of poison or fecal particulates, but still you will not drink?

By the way, I make no excuse for "Christian" schools operating under a public school philosophy and even secular textbooks. The lack of standards and classroom discipline is appalling. Parents and students often are disobedient to Biblical authority. Administration often is motivated by money and enrollment numbers rather than the will and glory of God. Dear public school parent and teacher, I make no excuse for the "Christian" school or home school in violation of God-centered authoritarian Biblically founded education with Scriptural discipline and Christ-like character training. Administration and parents constantly excusing ungodly slipshoddiness is an affront and reproach to true Bible training and education. God help us to know the difference and have the backbone to do right!

America was founded on the Bible, the fundamentals of the faith and theology along with an educational philosophy grounded in the Truth of Christ. Public Education and once great institutions that matriculated Pastors, missionaries and God believing minds run amuck with arrogant reprobate flesh. Dr. Andrew Snelling (PhD, geology) in answersupdate writes, "Over the past 25 years I have met so many professing Christians, including scientists and pastors, who are adamant that Genesis can't really mean God created in six literal days only thousands of years ago; they also deny that God later judged the world with the global catastrophic Flood. They claim that geologic evidences presented by evolutionary scientists and scholars (evidences that have been interpreted without the Bible as the ultimate authority) don't agree with the Bible! Well, of course they don't! Therefore, they say, God's Word can't be taken literally, and has to be re-interpreted! I am utterly amazed by this totally inconsistent reasoning. Those who are guilty of it are in reality accusing the infinite, all-powerful, triune Creator God of not being able to communicate accurately and clearly what He meant to tell us in His Word. Instead, the reasoning of sinful, finite, fallible men who are in rebellion against God is regarded as more reliable.... This is why I am not ashamed to be a creation scientist. Science cannot save me from God's judgment which I deserve as a rebellious sinner..."

A prime time example of worldly thinking and the lack of absolutes is the fornicating golf star, Tiger Woods. One reporter commenting on the immorality of Tiger Woods states, "We (referring to the media covering the story) have no standing on infidelity." In other words, that group of reporters had no absolute, authoritative standard on the "sins of Tiger Woods." That is the educational philosophy of the world. So why are they reporting on the "fall," "infidelity," "wrong doing," or "disappointment" of this golf athlete? If there is "no standing," why was his action wrong? What is the big story? The media is condemning and in wonder as to the golfing future of Tiger Woods. Why? After all Tiger admits he got away from his Buddhism. Ellen Degeneress is "Cover Girls" spokesperson. That same media keeps promoting Rosie O'Donnell and Oprah Winfrey. Barbara Walters, ABC, constantly interviews a parade of perverts and whoremongers. The media is in love with Hollywood, fornicators, and homosexuals. Go ahead—get 30 public school students together at your church and ask them their views on sex before marriage, homosexuality, abortion, evolution, lying, cheating, and be specific. If they will be honest, you will be shocked, that is if you know and believe the Bible. Maybe Tiger Woods needs counsel from Bill Clinton or David Letterman. If he masters the Masters again golf rules more absolute than morality.

A Look at the Contrast of Public Education and True Biblical Education

	Public Education	Biblical Education
Aim	Gov't directed goals	Nurture/admonition of the Lord
Authority	Humanism (no absolutes)	The Word of God
Advancement	Worldly objectives	Biblical purpose and Image of Christ

We have considered The Why of Education and The What of Education.

Finally, note The Way of Education.

For the Christian parents pursuing the Biblical teaching and training of a child the Way of education is clear: (Go to www.thevoiceinthewilderness.org to read the conclusion of this article.)

For decades many churches in America have farmed out their Great Commission responsibility. Mission's money is sent to co-op programs or a denominational mission board. The Voice in the Wilderness, however, helps make the connection. For example, I was just in the Philippines preaching. While there I met a pastor starting a new work in Capas. Then I met a missionary working with Muslim people in Indonesia. They need our prayers and help. God has given me the opportunity to see the need and return to the church here in America with the privilege to connect you to a great opportunity. Christ is the consummation of all and His coming is soon. Therefore, we must hasten the harvest.

For Christ and Souls,

Lessons from Aquila and Priscilla

Psalms 33:1 "Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright." There are two words here that are important for us. The first one is righteous. What does it mean to be righteous? You may have heard your pastor, Sunday school teacher or parents talk about righteous, but you didn't know what it meant. Righteous just means to do right. When you are doing right, you don't have anything to be afraid of. You don't feel like someone is watching you all the time. Your parents are happy when you are doing right; but more important is that God is happy when you are doing what is right. This word also means that you are right with God. The only way that you can be right with God is to ask Him to forgive you of your sin (all the bad things that we do).

The second word that is important in this verse is rejoice. This word means that you are glad or happy. Do you remember the day that you asked Jesus to forgive you of your sin? It was like a burden was lifted off your shoulders. You probably walked around with a smile on your face and wanted to tell everyone that Jesus now lives in your heart. You even started to sing songs louder because you love Jesus. That is who we need to be happy (rejoice) in. Jesus who loved you so much that He died on the cross for your sin, rose from the grave to defeat that sin, and will come one day to take you to Heaven to live with Him. We need to rejoice for all that Jesus did for us and what He will do for us. How about you? Can you rejoice because you have Jesus in your heart? If you do, are you doing what is right every day so that you can rejoice in Him?
